THE CHINA MAIL.

HONGKONG, WEDNESDAY, FEB. 19, 1879.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

We are informed by the Agents (Messrs. Adamson, Bell & Co.) that the S. S. Triton, from London, left Singapore yesterday (18th) for Hongkong.

We are requested by the Clerk of the Courts to state that there will be four or five races to-morrow, commencing at 3 p.m.

The Government Gazette of Wednesday, the 19th inst., contains the offer of a reward of $25 for the arrest or for information leading to the arrest of a notorious offender named Wong Ah, a gentleman of the burglar class, who distinguished himself by committing a burglary at Wong-nai-cheong on the 21st ultimo.

In the same issue of the Gazette appear the original statistics of the Colony for the year 1878, and, although we shall not deal with them to-day, it may be mentioned that they but too fully substantiate all the statements made by us regarding the alarming increase of serious crime during the past year. The number of "Serious Offences" which came under the notice of the Police for the last three years is given as follows:

1,486 1,998 2,611

Increase of serious crime during 1878, as compared with 1877, is thus 645 cases, or 52.51 per cent.; and upon 1876, 1128 cases, or say about 80 per cent. A considerable decrease is shown in the returns of minor offences, which will be at once seen depends simply and solely upon the activity of the officers of the Police supervision.

LOSS OF THE S. S. "TAIWAN."

We very much regret to have to chronicle the loss of Messrs. Douglas Laprak's steamer Taiwan, Captain Abbott. As the news of the wreck in telegraphic details are meagre enough; but it appears that the ill-fated vessel left Amoy on her voyage to Taiwan, and she was wrecked on the Northwest end of the Pescadore's on the 14th instant. Fortunately all lives have been saved, and the treasure (a pretty heavy item, we hear) was also rescued. It is not known whether she had any large amount of other cargo, although it is said she had a quantity of opium on board, and it is believed that a steamer will be at once sent from Amoy to save what may be remaining. The news reached Amoy by a junk, which had on board the survivors and treasure, &c., which had been saved. It is stated that the vessel is a total loss, which we understand falls chiefly upon the local offices. The Taiwan was a craft which seafaring persons call an unlucky ship: she was sunk in this Harbour in the great typhoon of 1874, and after being raised had her name Leonor altered to that of Taiwan. It is supposed that Capt. Abbott must have been deceived by the currents and drawn in amongst the rocks during the foggy weather which must have been prevalent along the Coast in this mild weather, as the Captain was a careful navigator and knows the route probably as well as any man living.

Canton.

Feb. 18, 1879.

Confirming the general tenor of our report of last evening respecting the tumult directed against a member of the Houqua family, whose residence is in the 18th ward, (the portion of the Western suburbs known as she-pat-poo in the vernacular, or as Curio Street for foreigners), we are very glad to correct it upon the point of the individual by whose instrumentality that revered name has been compromised; respecting which, indeed, our own correct impression was yesterday erroneously overruled by a comrade who had just come from the scene of strife, fully informed as he assumed as to the person directly implicated in the alleged grievances, whilst the antiquity of the two dwellings and the density of the mob left no clue to the point. Happily, the regrets inspired by recollection of the high-minded course of the historical chief of that name, in contrast with the position of his presently inculpated successor, are qualified in that this person is not the amiable gentleman his seventh and only surviving son, but a nephew of his who is a son of the second son of the former Chief of the Co-Hong of Security Merchants. We walked through the street from East to West this P.M. and found the neighborhood of the residences of the several Houqua families there guarded by well-armed detachments of soldiers, who permitted the general traffic in the absence of any local signs of a recurrence of tumult. Unhappily, the police or soldiers yesterday were brutally indiscriminating in repression and more or less severely injured four or five persons who were mere spectators, including two lads under 13 years of age.

This morning the fire-wood dealers declared their purpose to cease bringing any more of it from the country; but subsequently the threatened "strike" was averted, for the time being at least.

In the midst of all the complications of the time; the rebellions in Kwang-si and Hainan, the revival of persecution of the native Christians in the Eastern districts, and the spread of the Opium plague; there is, per contra—a reassuring feature of moral healthfulness, in that orders have arrived from Peking for the establishment here of two new schools, one for teaching in the German language and one in the French language.

Alarms of fire have been frequent latterly; but there has been no considerable conflagration.

HONGKONG RACES, 1879.

This the third day of the meeting was favoured with the most agreeable weather of the three, the heat being less than yesterday. The interest in the Races was fully maintained, judging from the attendance. One of the most interesting races of the day was that for the Ladies' Purse. Bay Rum, ridden by Allan, succeeded, after a sharp struggle with Cynosure, in carrying off the Purse, which was presented immediately after the race by Miss Hall. The Purse, which was a very pretty one, clasped with silver and having a spur at the top, contained twenty-five sovereigns, and an old Chinese cash, the latter being for luck. It was accompanied by a few words of congratulation from Miss Hall, and in reply, Mr Allan, who was at exceptionally popular winner, had an opportunity of firing off a speech, which, amidst a long number of yells.

The race to-day presented few other features calling for special note. In the contest for the Keeschong Cup—a terrible long pull of two miles in the sun—Scamp distinguished himself and kept up his reputation, by taking the lead and maintaining it until the finish, coming in an easy winner. If anything is calculated to try the genuine qualities of a horse we should imagine it was a victory achieved in a long race like this one, over a hard and dusty course with Sol's rays pouring down, not quite so fiercely as we sometimes get them here, but still quite warmly enough to make a race over two and quarter miles a rather uncomfortable undertaking. The victory is perhaps more noteworthy from the fact that it was the first race at the Meeting in which a horse that had taken the lead at the start, and had held it for the greater part of the time, had succeeded in ultimately securing the first place. Scamp did not permit any of the other horses to approach him throughout the race. In a general way the leading horses at the early periods of the races appear to come to grief in the neighbourhood of the winning post. Strathavon's victory in the race for the Champion Stakes was rather a surprise, Reichsfreiherr of course being the favourite for the struggle. One pleasant feature of this year's Races has been the entire absence of accidents. Beyond the harmless dismounting of a rider on one occasion, and the breaking of a bridle on another, the present meeting has been wholly free of mishaps, serious or trifling. Last year it will be remembered, one or two serious accidents had to be chronicled. We omitted in our notices of the previous days' proceedings to note that the judges were Messrs. E. Sheppard and J. Githins, both of Footchow. Their decisions appeared to give full satisfaction. The Native Scramble was postponed until to-morrow, when doubtless one or two other races will as usual be added to the one in question.

The winner of the Ladies' Purse (Mr H. Allan) thus thanked Miss Hall and the ladies for the Purse:—

It gives me very great pleasure indeed to receive this purse from the ladies in Hongkong, more particularly yourself. It is the first purse I've ever had the pleasure of winning, although I've tried very hard on several occasions to win one, but failed. However, I feel very proud at being the fortunate winner, and I shall value this purse more than anything I possess. I shall ever remember this incident with pride and pleasure, and in thanking you for your kind remarks I once more thank yourself and the ladies of Hongkong for this very handsome gift.

The Band of the 74th Highlanders, under Band-Sergeant Wishart, and the Pipes, under Pipe-Major Hall, discoursed sweet music and Scotch "cadences" respectively during the afternoon;—the Band programme being as follows:—

Overture, ..... Bronze Horse, ..... Auber.Valse, ..... Juristen Ball, ..... Strauss.Fantasia, ..... Scotch, ..... Erich.Mazurka, ..... Arm in Arm, ..... Strauss.Cavatina, (Cornet), ..... Dream of Love, ..... Miller.Valse, ..... Die Industriellen, ..... Strauss.Galop, ..... Harum Scarum, ..... Cassidy.

"God Save the Queen."

THIRD DAY.

WEDNESDAY, 19th FEBRUARY, 1879.

Stewards: His Excellency John Pope Hennessy, C.M.G.; His Excellency Major-General Donovon; Commodore Watson, R.N.; Colonel Jago, H.M. 74th Highlanders; H. B. Gibb, Esq.; The Hon. W. Kewick; The Hon. P. Kyrie; A. Coxon, Esq.; H. Hoppus, Esq.; W. H. Forbes, Esq.; and J. H. Scott, Esq. Hon. Treasurer: R. H. Sandeman, Esq. Clerk of the Course: M. W. Saunders, Lieut., R.A.

1.—THE SUBSCRIPTION CHALLENGE CUP, value 100 Guineas, presented by the Chinese, for the bona fide property of Hongkong and Canton Residents of not less than six months immediately previous to date of entry; weight for inches; entrance $5; to be won two years consecutively by a pony or ponies, the bona fide property of the same owner. Only two ponies competed for the Subscription Challenge Cup. Mr Paul, the winner last year, sent out Midlander to secure the prize for him, whilst Mr Theod's Black Diamond came forward to make a race. The race was hardly worthy the name, as the qualities of Mr Paul's horse were well known. It was consequently clear to the minds of the knowing ones—who are not always right, however—that Midlander had a "soft thing" here. Black Diamond showed the way to the Rock the first round, when the favorite quietly passed him, and the rest of the run was mere donkey raddle. Midlander winning easily. This fine cup is now the property of Mr Paul, one of the wealthiest Hongkong "sports" of modern days.

2.—THE NAVY PLATE, value $580; presented by Officers of R.M. Fleet for all China, Manila, and Japan Forces; weight for inches; winners previous to this Meeting of one Race 5lb. extra, of two Races, 7lb. extra, and of three Races 10lb. extra; non-starters at this Meeting excluded; entrance $10. One Mile.

Five ponies faced the starter for the Navy Plate, viz., Redstart, Lilo, Isgrim, Expectation and Black Moire. Expectation started as the favorite, although Black Moire had many admirers. They got away well together, Lilo making the running to the Rock, but here Expectation was put on his mettle and made the running pretty warm down to the Village; Lilo was, however, still able to maintain his lead, although evidently winded, but coming up the Straight the favorite showed to the front, winning by a head; Black Moire having crept into third place.

3.—THE LADIES' PURSE, for all Ponies that have run at this Meeting, to be handicapped by the Stewards; entrance for Ponies accepting $5. Seven Furlongs.

Five ponies came forward for the Ladies' Purse. They were handicapped by the Stewards as follows: Cynosure, 10st. 11; Bay Rum, 10st. 5; Blue Peter, (catch); Prince, (catch); Shere Abbas, 11st. After some preliminary canters they got away well together, Cynosure and Shere Abbas being the favorites. The race was uneventful, the running being good, but the positions altered but little during the entire race; Cynosure and Bay Rum had a hard tussle for the lead entering the Straight, but the latter got away from his rival, and won easily by two lengths.

Four ponies came forward to contend for the Keeschong Cup: Scamp, Black Pearl, Girths, and Isgrim. Scamp had heavy odds laid upon him, and his behaviour showed that his backers had good reason for the favourable opinion they entertained of him. He went off with the lead and showed the way round the course, never being approached the whole distance; in fact increasing his lead almost the whole way, he won easily held by any distance, and looking still fresh. Girths, who had started with second place, dropped into the rear the second time round, but passing the Rock the last time made a great effort to gain a place. He managed to pass Isgrim, but even this unfortunate animal resented such behavior and recovered his advantage; Girths coming in last.

Redstart, Cynosure, Surcingle and Bismarck came to the starting post. The first named horse took the lead, but soon gave way to Bismarck. Passing the Winning Post the first time, Bismarck was still leading, and the other three horses were in a string behind, Redstart being second, Cynosure third and Surcingle fourth. At the Black Rock Cynosure had drawn up to the leader, Surcingle and Redstart running side by side in close company to the leaders. When the Village was reached the ponies were in a clump, but after entering the Reach Surcingle and Redstart took the leading position, and a splendid neck-and-neck race for about a hundred yards ensued between these two horses. Redstart's rider had, however, to apply the whip pretty severely to maintain the competition with Surcingle. The latter horse won by about a neck.
